January 2026

---

I was hearing a presentation on prayer by an expert on the subject. He stopped me dead in my tracks when he declared, "Prayer is wasting time with God." I was waiting and waiting for him to walk back the statement but he did not. I was neither convinced nor amused.

In the light of our American ethos of always being productive, I can understand the statement. Prayer appears to accomplish nothing. Yet it accomplishes everything. St. Augustine said, quoting the Psalmist: "Our hearts are restless until they rest in Thee." The problem with many of our hearts is that they are restless because they chase after that which does not matter.

Prayer is spending time with the one who loved us first and the one who loves us best. Is spending time with our spouse and family a waste of time? Ebenezer Scrooge would say so. He and the world would say so because they have their priorities out of line.

Spending time with God in prayer reminds us of what is truly important in life. Most of what we are concerned about today will become either dust or rust. Prayer reminds us what is truly important in life.

See you in Worship,
Pastor Johnson

A Purposeful New Year

The person who goes into the new year without some priorities governing their life and without some principles guiding their behavior, is prey to the tempting, unimportant and destructive things in life. The new year is an opportunity to sort out the useless tasks and plan for the important; to review the failures and resolve to be successful; to take an inventory of causes and pledge life to purpose and service. These being done, the new will truly be new, different and better.

— C. Neil Strait

Pastor's Sunday School Class: Adult Sunday School Acts of the Apostles

Come explore what it was like to be a part of the early Church and to journey with the Apostles in the spread of the Gospel!

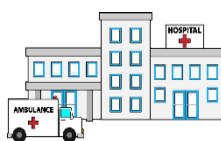

The conversion of Paul. The first mission to the gentiles. The first ecumenical council. What was discussed? What was decided? How did the Gospel spread?

Our source of Light

Epiphany beckons us to come to the light of Jesus Christ. Epiphany calls us to stare into that light until our inner darkness is fully expunged. Epiphany then sends us out into a dark and weary world as women and men with shining faces, until we say with the apostle Paul, "It is the God who said, 'Let light shine out of darkness,' who has shone in our hearts to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ" [see 2 Corinthians 4:6].

—Jason Gaboury,
campus minister in New York City

St. John's 200th
Anniversary
Celebration continues with:

Eric Cook Day

February 1st

In celebration of his contribution to St. John's worship life as organist and bell choir director from 2003 to 2007 Eric will be playing the organ for us once again. He will be honored with a coffee hour following worship.

As we celebrate 200 years of music in the church praising God, we thank God for Eric's worship leadership.

How important to you is the Music Ministry at St Johns?

When Ralph and I started coming to St John's over thirty years ago, I was taken in by the wonderful choir and how uplifting the Anthems were. Singing to the glory of God is seen in the Old Testament. The psalms were sung and they emphasized worship, trust and praise for God's unfailing love and power.

The Anthems are an integral part of the worship service. To continue praising God through these Anthems, we need members of St. John's (particularly male voices) to join the choir. We are fortunate to have talented musicians amongst our choir members and Rebecca and Liz do a phenomenal job leading the choir. So please consider joining.

Blessings,
Michelle Kozlowski

Many thanks to everyone . . .

. . . the singers, ringers, musicians, staff, and others who put in countless hours to rehearse or have contributed in other ways to make the Advent and Christmas Season a special time for all.

We are blessed to have such a talented and dedicated group of people that contribute to the St. Johns music ministry throughout the entire church year!

After Christmas, choir rehearsals will resume Wednesday January 7, 2026.

Precious Lord, Take My Hand

Thomas Dorsey, a jazz musician from Atlanta, made a bold decision in 1926 to leave behind secular music and devote his talent to writing songs for the Lord. But following that call wasn't easy. During the Great Depression, many church leaders criticized his soulful gospel style, calling it "the devil's music." Dorsey later joked, "I got kicked out of some of the best churches in the land."

Then, in 1932, tragedy struck. While in St. Louis for a revival, he received a telegram that his wife had died suddenly during childbirth. His faith was shaken to the core, and grief nearly silenced him. Yet in his deepest sorrow, Dorsey turned back to what he knew best — music. Out of that heartbreak came one of the most beloved hymns of all time:

*"Precious Lord, take my hand,
Lead me on, let me stand.
I am tired, I am weak, I am worn..."*

Dorsey's song reminds us that even in our valleys, God is near — guiding us, strengthening us, and using our pain to comfort others who walk the same road.

January Men's Prayer Breakfast

than in

Christian Symbol

SHIP — The Christian church has long been symbolized by a ship. While the Old Testament tells of Noah's ark preserving righteous people during the flood, the New Testament recounts Jesus calming the storm that battered the disciples' fishing boat. St. Ambrose described the church as a ship with the cross as its mast, and others have compared salvation to being drawn out of the sea of death into the safety of the church (ship). Indeed, many large churches are constructed to represent a big boat, with the main worship space called the nave — Latin for ship.

Fellowship Hours

A time of fellowship will be provided each Sunday after worship in the Gathering Space. Please plan to stay after worship to meet and greet fellow members and visitors of St. John's. If you would like to help host a fellowship hour, please see Pastor Johnson.
