July 2023

"For freedom Christ has set you free."

We celebrate Independence Day thanking God for being free from England. Being a free, independent nation takes constant guarding. We say that freedom isn't free, because it is constantly under attack. The bill of rights is constantly under attack. That is political freedom.

We thank God for our military throughout this nation's history who have protected the First Amendment so that we can worship without fear—something that seems to be more and more under attack.

We now live in a nation that is no longer Christian. In some pockets, there is open hostility to Christianity, (Hollywood and almost everything that comes out of Hollywood for example).

It is good and right to celebrate our independence. In the midst of this celebration, however, it is also important to remember our dependence on God. The nation that loses its mooring to God will eventually lose all. Independence from tyrants necessitates our dependence on God. Without our dependence on God we will fall back into being ruled by tyrants every time!

*"For freedom Christ has set you free;
stand firm therefore,
and do not submit again to a yoke of slavery."*

See you in Worship,
Pastor Johnson

The power of love

Only in love can I find you, my God. In love the gates of my soul spring open, allowing me to breathe a new air of freedom and forget my own petty self. In love my whole being streams forth out of the rigid confines of narrowness and anxious self-assertion, which make me a prisoner of my own poverty emptiness. In love all the powers of my soul flow out toward you, wanting never more to return, but to lose themselves completely in you, since by your love you are the inmost center of my heart, closer to me than I am to myself.

Wednesday Evenings This Fall
Beginning September 6th, 7:00 p.m.

Upside-Down Spirituality: the 9 Essential Failures of a Faithful Life, by Chad Bird.

"In our age when the church can too often seem like a poor copy of the world, Chad Bird challenges us to reclaim the astounding originality of our ancient, backward faith. Where the world stresses the importance of success, Bird invites readers to embrace nine specific failures in the areas of our personal lives, our relationships, and the church. Why? Because what human wisdom deems indispensable is so often an impediment to our spiritual growth, and what it deems insignificant is so often essential to it.

"With compelling examples from the Bible and today, Bird paints an enticing picture of the counterintuitive, countercultural life that God wants for us. He helps readers delight in all of the ways that Jesus turned the world upside-down, allowing us to experience true freedom, not from our weaknesses but in the midst of them."

Adult Sunday School Beginning September 17th

Pastor Johnson's class will be studying the book Limping with God, by Chad Bird. "Jacob seems to be anything but a model disciple. He's a trickster, liar, and selfishly ambitious man who fathers children with four women and leads a dysfunctional family rife with jealousy and backstabbing. But Jacob is also Israel, the namesake of the Old Testament community of God, chosen and blessed. As such, this sinner-saint, who limps along with the Lord, burdened by weakness and beset by problems, is the mirror image of all of us who follow Jesus. In his life we see our lives, our struggles, our failures, and most especially the God who loves us and chooses us as his own. As we explore his bio, from his wrangling in the womb with Esau to his death as an old man in Egypt, we will learn more about ourselves and the God who is with us and for us in Jesus the Messiah."

Safe and secure

The Resurrection is an exploding flare announcing to all sincere seekers that it is safe to believe. Safe to believe in ultimate justice. Safe to believe in eternal bodies. Safe to believe in heaven as our estate and the earth as its porch. Safe to believe in a time where questions won't keep us awake and pain won't keep us down. Safe to believe in open graves and endless days and genuine praise. ...

Because of the Resurrection, everything changes. Death changes. It used to be the end; now it is the beginning.
