Stewardship of Time

As we begin our Lenten journey I bring back up that most evil of words: Stewardship. We are stewards of what God has first given us. God is the owner, we are but managers of what is His. In the fall we talked about being managers of God's Treasure. Now entering into Lent, we talk about Time.

No one has enough time. We are very busy people. We spend our time as wisely as we can trying to make the most of it. God promises tomorrow to no one. How we spend our time matters.

We forget that our time belongs to God. He parcels out each day as a gift: one day at a time. He is the owner entrusting us to manage this time to His glory. "let your light shine before others, so that they may see your good works and give glory to your Father who is in heaven" (Matthew 5:16 ESV). How we spend our time witnesses to others what is important.

God has promised tomorrow to no one. Instead, He promises His children, claimed by Him in baptism, eternal life. We rush around like time is limited because we do not see the abundance He has lavished upon us.

This Lent, Lent us return the Lord our God, spending time with the one who loved you first and the one who loves you most!

See you in Worship,

Pastor Johnson

The realm of the impossible

The wonderful thing about praying is that you leave a world of not being able to do something and enter God's realm, where everything is possible. He specializes in the impossible. Nothing is too great for His almighty power. Nothing is too small for His love.

—Corrie ten Boom

God's love is never meant to stop with us; it's meant to flow through us. When we love others, we reflect his very heart. As 1 John 4:12 (NIV) reminds us, "If we love one another, God lives in us and his love is made complete in us."

This is the true mark of a Christian — love that reaches beyond comfort zones, opinions and differences. Jesus said in John 13:35 (NIV), "By this everyone will know that you are my disciples, if you love one another."

The world is watching, not to see how loudly we profess our faith but how deeply we practice it. Every act of compassion, every gentle word and every moment of grace reveals something divine — God's love at work in us. The more we give that love away, the more it grows within us, mirroring the heart of Christ, who gave Himself for all.

So ask yourself: Does the world recognize you as his disciple by the way you love?

"This is the miracle that happens every time to those who really love; the more they give, the more they possess."

—Rainer Maria Rilke

Ash Wednesday Worship Service

The Ash Wednesday Communion Service will be held on February 18th at 7:00 p.m. This is the beginning of our Lenten journey. Please plan to attend this meaningful service of ashes and Holy Communion as we embark together on our Lenten Disciplines.

Needed for Altar Care:

Plastic or Metal coffee cans for altar flowers. 30-to-40-ounce cans are ideal.

Spring Cleaning for the Soul

Ash Wednesday is February 18, 2026, and it marks the beginning of the 40 days of Lent. Lent hints of spring, a time when the earth begins to awaken from a winter's nap, and new growth bursts forth all about us.

More personally, it is an opportunity to enter into a springtime for our spirit. For centuries Christians have used the 40 days of Lent to seek spiritual growth. Sincere repentance, a changing of heart, casting off old sinful practices and seeking to commune with our creator help us go in the right direction. Spending serious time in silence and prayer focuses our attention. Reading spiritual literature, becoming more knowledgeable about the New Testament, meeting in small groups with other Christians to share personal stories of faith can all be immensely stimulating. Joining with others to serve the helpless and hopeless can strengthen our spiritual life.

Lent is a time to let God do "spring cleaning" within us. It's our opportunity to allow God to help us toss out the "stuff" that hinders us and then freshen up the "new creature" we are meant to be as followers of Christ.

From Mere Christianity by C.S. Lewis

"Being in love is a good thing, but it is not the best thing. There are many things below it, but there are also things above it. You cannot make it the basis of a whole life. It is a noble feeling, but it is still a feeling. Now no feeling can be relied on to last in its full intensity, or even to last at all. Knowledge can last, principles can last, habits can last; but feelings come and go. And in fact, whatever people say, the state called "being in love" usually does not last. If the old fairy-tale ending "They lived happily ever after" is taken to mean "They felt for the next fifty years exactly as they felt the day before they were married," then it says what probably never was nor ever could be true, and would be highly undesirable if it were. Who could bear to live in that excitement for even five years? What would become of your work, your appetite, your sleep, your friendships? But, of course, ceasing to be "in love" need not mean ceasing to love. Love in this second sense – love as distinct from "being in love" is not merely a feeling. It is a deep unity, maintained by the will and deliberately strengthened by habit; reinforced by (in Christian marriages) the grace which both parents ask, and receive, from God. They can have this love for each other even at those moments when they do not like each other; as you love yourself even when you do not like yourself. They can retain this love even when each would easily, if they allowed themselves, be "in love" with someone else. "Being in love" first moved them to promise fidelity: this quieter love enables them to keep the promise. It is on this love that the engine of marriage is run: being in love was the explosion that started it."

"No matter what sin we have committed, no matter how terrible it may be, God loves us."

—Billy Graham

Katie's Cupboard

Our Lenten Journey for 2026 starts February 18th. Imagine the power of Forty!

For Forty days of Lent, we are to “give up something”, but can we? Can we give up worrying where our next meal is coming from? Can we give up wondering how to get our clothes clean? Can we give up the scraps from our table to try and feed our fur babies?

Look thru your closets, can you donate your excess blankets and towels to the local Pet shelter? If you need to know how, just ask us~ If you can shop at Dollar Tree dollar section, their laundry detergent is just $1.00 for a few loads.

Your donations of proteins & food items, band aids, soap and detergents, as well as pet food go far in assisting the community thru Katie's Cupboard.

Can you find one item a day to donate to Katie's or your local pet shelter?

Jesus was the one to make the supreme sacrifice for us.

One thing can make a difference to someone in need~ Imagine the power of Forty!

Love makes us worthy

Unlike God, who loves unconditionally, humans often make choices and set limits when doling out affection. But Thomas Merton reminds us, “Our job is to love others without stopping to inquire whether or not they are worthy. That is not our business and, in fact, it is nobody's business. What we are asked to do is to love, and this love itself will render both ourselves and our neighbors worthy.”
