Reality

God, the author and giver of life, designed the world, created us, and gave us a vocation for this life. Our seminary professor, Dr. David Luy, says: as Christians, our vocation is the calling to live in communion and faithfulness to Jesus. This is reality.

The world, however, is constantly bombarding us with alternate realities, trying to convince us that there is something more important than God. The world keeps us chasing after things that, in the end, do not last.

"But seek first the kingdom of God and his righteousness, and all these things will be added to you, (Matthew 6:33 ESV)." If we do not put Jesus first, we will never get around to seeking Him; the world will keep us too busy chasing after other things, things that in the end do not matter.

The Christian understanding of reality is a beautiful understanding of reality. We are invited to live in this reality. "For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God prepared beforehand, that we should walk in them, (Ephesians 2:10 ESV)."

The Christian reality is one where God is in control. Where love is more powerful than hate. Where we were made for community—the body of Christ. Where our God is bigger than our problems. Where we serve God by serving others. Where life is lived out in thanks and praise for what God has first done for us. Don't let the world convince you otherwise.

You are God's precious possession. We are called to spread the good news of His love with those who need to hear and know of His love.

See you in Worship,

Pastor Johnson

In Faith Takes a Name, Dwight E. Stevenson writes that if we consider ourselves to be disciples of Jesus, then we must remain "learners under the instruction of Christ." He notes, "Quite literally, a disciple is a pupil, scholar, student or learner. In [Jesus'] world a teacher with his band of disciples was to that culture what schools and universities are to our society. To be a disciple of Jesus is to go to school with him."

SEEKING HOMEBOUND EUCHARISTIC MINISTERS AND VISITORS

Please prayerfully consider being a blessing to our homebound members by becoming a part of our Homebound Ministry where we provide a critical connection for our homebound members to the full church community. When our members are homebound and unable to attend worship, the Eucharistic Ministers will bring them Holy Communion once a month. This is not just any bread or wine, but the Body and Blood of our Lord and Savior, consecrated on the altar on Sunday morning. Readings from the worship service and an update to current events through the bulletin are also shared during these home visits.

If you are currently bringing Holy Communion to Shut-ins, or would like to begin delivering the "Bread of Life," please see Pastor Johnson.

Homebound visitors make a monthly visit to a homebound member to offer words of prayer, encouragement and to share in the life of our faith. Touch others and be touched by being part of this important ministry. You may choose to be a Eucharistic Minister, homebound visitor or both. This is such a rewarding experience - sharing our faith, the life of the church and touching the lives of our senior members. Our list has grown and we need more members willing to make visits. Let's not let our homebound members feel as though they are forgotten.

If you are interested or would like more information, please contact Pastor Johnson, 724-548-2051.

Book Study

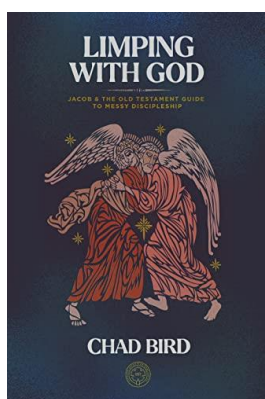

Wednesday Evenings This Fall
Beginning September 6th,
7:00 p.m.

Upside-Down Spirituality: the 9
Essential Failures of a Faithful
Life, by Chad Bird.

"In our age when the church can too often seem like a poor copy of the world, Chad Bird challenges us to reclaim the astounding originality of our ancient, backward faith. Where the world stresses the importance of success, Bird invites readers to embrace nine specific failures in the areas of our personal lives, our relationships, and the church. Why? Because what human wisdom deems indispensable is so often an impediment to our spiritual growth, and what it deems insignificant is so often essential to it.

"With compelling examples from the Bible and today, Bird paints an enticing picture of the counterintuitive, countercultural life that God wants for us. He helps readers delight in all of the ways that Jesus turned the world upside-down, allowing us to experience true freedom, not from our weaknesses but in the midst of them."

Pastor's Sunday School Class:

Adult Sunday School
Beginning September 17th

Pastor Johnson's class will be studying the book Limping with God, by Chad Bird.

"Jacob seems to be anything but a model disciple. He's a trickster, liar, and selfishly ambitious man who fathers children with four women and leads a dysfunctional family rife with jealousy and backstabbing. But Jacob is also Israel, the namesake of the Old Testament community of God, chosen and blessed. As such, this sinner-saint, who limps along with the Lord, burdened by weakness and beset by problems, is the mirror image of all of us who follow Jesus. In his life we see our lives, our struggles, our failures, and most especially the God who loves us and chooses us as his own. As we explore his bio, from his wrangling in the womb with Esau to his death as an old man in Egypt, we will learn more about ourselves and the God who is with us and for us in Jesus the Messiah."
